

Metropolitan Transport Forum

You are invited to a public forum on

Transport for sustainable cities

with

Professor Ross Garnaut

Federal MPs, Greg Hunt and Kelvin Thomson

Also the launch of the MTF 2010 campaign

“What moves you, what moves your vote?”

Thursday 18 February 2010, 3.00 - 4.30 pm

BMW Edge, Federation Square

Swanston/Flinders Streets, Melbourne

There is no entry charge or booking required

See over for program details

2.30pm: BMW Edge entry open

3.00 pt4me2 campaign launch

3.05 - 3.25pm: Professor Ross Garnaut, eminent economist, prolific author including: The Great Crash of 2008; and the Garnaut Climate Change Review

3.25 - 3.50pm: The Hon Greg Hunt MP, Shadow Minister for Climate Action, Environment and Heritage, Lawyer, Fulbright Scholar and former advisor on human rights and foreign affairs

3.50-3.55: Commentary, by Kelvin Thomson MP, Federal Member for Wills

3.55 - 4.25pm Questions to Speakers

Close 4.25- 4.30pm: Cr Jackie Fristacky, Chair, Metropolitan Transport Forum

The Metropolitan Transport Forum (www.mtf.org.au) is hosting this event on sustainable transport as part of the Sustainable Living Festival series of events during 15-21 February 2010.

There is no entry charge or booking required.

For further details: email mtf@mtf.org.au

View <http://festival.slf.org.au>; www.thatsmelbourne.com.au